To Whom It May Concern:

I am the CEO of a 99-bed hospital and have worked closely with The Medicus Firm and specifically Chad Rudel on our recruitment efforts for a Family Practitioner, Orthopedic Surgeon and an Anesthesiologist in an effort to expand services.

I have worked with other firms in the past and feel that the process as well as the results provided by The Medicus Firm far exceeds that of others. I have been presented well qualified, solid and motivated candidates and have secured a General Surgeon due to the efforts of Chad Rudel.

They are diligent in their efforts and communicate with me several times per week on the process and I feel that they have accommodated me and kept me in the loop. From the onsite visit to evaluate the opportunities to the presentation of the candidates has been very personalized to our situation and I am impressed with the quality physicians that I have interviewed.

The Medicus Firm truly provides a "personal touch" which is very important to me. I never feel as though they are wasting my time! I have never had them present me a candidate that didn't "fit" the profile. I view it as a strategic partnership and I will continue to utilize their services in the future exclusively.

Sincerely,

Harris Brooks, MHA/MBA
